Happy Mother's Day to all the amazing
PACC moms out there!

Greetings from our Pastor!

For her preschool unit on nature, my 5-year-old daughter Davie has been keeping an eye out for "signs of spring." On the way to and from school each morning, we've marveled over snow glories and crocuses; tulips and daffodils; new leaves on trees; and an uptick in robins snagging worms.

But our favorite neighborhood nature sighting can be seen all year long: a rare "piebald" Easter cottontail rabbit. The piebald coloring is mostly white, with a few brownish-grey patches - due to a genetic mutation and can make piebald rabbits easy prey for hawks and owls. But our Piebald Bunny, as we call it, is pretty good at hiding in the bushes; we play a game on the way to school to see who can spot it first.

From pill bugs to red tailed hawks, it's such a thrill to see Davie sharing my sense of awe and wonder at God's creation. But I particularly love sharing our rabbit friend with her, because just like the freckles that pop out on her cheeks this time of year, Piebald Bunny is a reminder of God's creativity - and that difference can be special.

In honor of Piebald Bunny and of God's tendency to show off in spring and summer, I invite you to read this poem by Gerard Manley Hopkins celebrating all manner of spotted, mottled, and strange creations giving glory to their Maker by the very fact of their juxtaposition:

"Pied Beauty"

*Glory be to God for dappled things –
For skies of couple-colour as a brindled cow;
For rose-moles all in stipple upon trout that swim;
Fresh-firecoal chestnut-falls; finches' wings;
Landscape plotted and pieced – fold, fallow, and plough;
And all trades, their gear and tackle and trim.*

*All things counter, original, spare, strange;
Whatever is fickle, freckled (who knows how?)
With swift, slow; sweet, sour; adazzle, dim;
He fathers-forth whose beauty is past change:
Praise him.*

Blessings,

Reverend Leah Lyman Waldron, Pastor

Announcing the Search Committee for CE Director

As Leah and Valerie shared with the congregation, "after 14 years as our Christian Education Director, Kate Lindheim is moving on to pursue preschool teaching full time. We are so excited for her new adventure, but also so sad for Park Avenue. From teaching our children about Jesus to guiding our youth to equipping our Sunday school teachers to leading us in outreach to the homeless and hungry to starting our knitting group, Kate has touched so many hearts during her time here. She has made so many families, new and old, feel welcome and experience God's love at church. Her shoes will be hard to fill!"

We have formed the Search Committee that will seek Kate's successor as CE Director. Please keep us in your prayers in this process. We are delighted that this group represents folks who have kids of all ages who are now or who have been in the CE program, people who have been at Park Avenue for varying lengths of time, and we are especially grateful to have two of our youth -- Ella Ford and Lane Hogan -- serving on the committee!

We hope to have a job description posted in the next few weeks and, ideally, to have the new CE Director in place by the beginning of the summer. We'll soon have a group email list, but for now, feel free to contact Marianne McPherson (Chair), with any questions or feedback (marianne.mcp@gmail.com, 617-501-6884).

Thank you! The CE Director Search Committee:

Marianne McPherson, Chair (2019 Deacon for Christian Education)

Valerie Censabella, Katie Colello, Sarah Baldwin, Ella Ford, Lane Hogan, Josh Young, Leah Lyman Waldron (Ex Officio), Andy Hart (Ex Officio)

Mission and Justice Matters at PACC

Mission and Justice Spotlight

Open and Affirming – ONA

At a special congregational meeting on May 6, 2007 we became covenant members of the UCC ONA Coalition by adopting the following declaration:

We, the members of Park Avenue Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, as an expression of our Christian love for all God's people, declare ourselves to be an Open and Affirming congregation. Open and Affirming is the UCC designation for congregations that make public statements of welcome into their full life, leadership and ministries to persons of all sexual orientations and gender identities. We welcome all people into our community of faith, embracing differences of sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, race, ethnicity, mental or physical ability, age and socio-economic background.

In our calling to express the love and welcome of Christ, we affirm the dignity and worth of every person.

We celebrate our commitment each year on the first Sunday in May. Join us for our 12th Anniversary remembrance on May 5, 2019. Wear a nametag with your pronouns, ask others theirs instead of presuming to know, and go to <https://www.mypronouns.org> to find out the what, why, and how of personal pronouns.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING® (OGHS)

In March we collected $1,833.00 for One Great Hour of Sharing® (OGHS), which is more than 128% of last year's total. THANK YOU for your generosity. Stay updated about OGHS at www.ucc.org/oghs and www.facebook.com/onegreathourofsharingucc.

See <https://beyondbondboston.org/> for more about what they do. Talk to Cindy Manson if you are not yet on her email distribution list and wish to participate or merely be informed.

Immigrant Rights Sunday

The first Sunday in May has been designated Immigrant Rights Sunday within the United Church of Christ. Justice and Witness Ministries and Wider Church Ministries are urging congregations to lift up immigrants on this day: to learn about their concerns, honor their contributions to our country and communities, hear their pain, pray for their well-being, and listen to hear where God is leading us regarding issues of immigration. For the most current issues on immigration with potential ways to get involved see http://www.ucc.org/justice_migration_immigrantrightssunday.

Mystic LGBTQ+ Youth Support Network – Sign up for Queer Mystic's Newsletter here:

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Asylum Task Force is a ministry of Hadwen Park Church and a community-based organization dedicated to supporting and empowering LGBTQI individuals who are seeking asylum in the United States. Asylum seekers who file for asylum in the United States are not permitted to work until they are granted a work permit and social security number, a process which can take more than a year. During that time, we strive to provide housing and financial support. Our goal is to educate the public in an effort to change policy around the globe so that someday no LGBTQI person will need to seek asylum because of their sexual orientation or gender identity and the need to find a safe place. <http://www.lgbtasylum.org/>
