To our friends at Park Avenue Congregational Church,

On behalf of the Arlington Center for the Arts and the Mystic LGBTQ+ Youth Support Network, I would like to thank you for your very generous contribution. Your donation is helping to provide secure, sustainable space for LGBTQ+ youth to meet for recreation, education, support and the freedom to express themselves openly in their identities.

You are supporting our Friday Night Drop-in program, where teens are engaging in theater games, writing and collage, sex ed, crocheting and queer history. This past season, our youth painted a public mural under the direction of the artist Bren Bataclan, which was hung at the Arlington Food Pantry on Broadway. The youth were so excited to give back to the community in this way.

The Arlington Center for the Arts is proud to sponsor Queer Mystic in their efforts to support the safety, well-being and celebration of LGBTQ+ youth in and around Arlington, Massachusetts. We applaud their grassroots efforts to develop programming and recruit and train volunteers to support LGBTQ+ youth, and thank you so much for contributing to this important work.

Again, thank you for your generous support!

Most Sincerely,

Linda Shoemaker
Executive Director
